Our Topic is A Child's War, studying life in Britain during the Second World War. Click on this link to dive deeper into the topic: World War II - English Heritage

Try the quiz to see if you would make it as a special operations paratrooper...

Food was rationed during World War II and families had to get a little more creative in the kitchen. Try following the recipe for a tasty syrup cake and bake a delicious wartime treat.

Write a newspaper report on how over 330,000 allied troops were rescued from the beaches of Dunkirk in northern France during the Second World War

Use the facts on this page 10 Facts about World War II and this one Life in the Blitz to create a timeline of key events in World War II: add illustrations too if you wish.

Anne Frank

Read about Anne Frank who wrote a diary about her life whilst hiding in the annex, unable to go outside. Write a diary of your experiences whilst having to quarantine.

Your ideal WWII occupation

Did you know that Bletchley Park was once the top-secret home of the World War II Codebreakers?

Take part in this quiz to discover which job would have suited you best – an intercept operator, codebreaker or dispatch rider?
